

The ancient taverns of Bologna

Tasting of the best regional wines and food!

The presence of university students has helped the opening of this kind of "shops" since the XIIIth Century and also today, among the narrow streets of the medieval town, some XIVth Century pubs are still very crowded.

This kind of reality didn't change during the centuries and today, like ever, Bologna night life is peculiar for its vivacity and innovation.

A very pleasant walk in the evening will give you the possibility to feel the most typical Bologna atmosphere.

We will visit 3 different taverns discovering their history and anecdotes, and taste our best regional wines accompanied by our specialities famous all over the world: Mortadella Bologna Sausage, Parmesan Cheese, Parma Ham and more!
